MESSAGE FROM THE MAYOR

HENRY LESSNER

Town of Fairview
372 Town Place
Fairview, TX 75069
972-562-0522

Hello Fairview friends!

Summer is over – we look forward to some cooler weather – and college and high school football is back!

I have had the opportunity recently to visit with multiple Fairview groups and what I consistently hear is how much they love living in Fairview. We are a town of small and quiet neighborhoods that are only minutes from shopping and restaurants in Fairview, Allen, and McKinney. The one issue I consistently hear about is the need for more reliable and higher speed internet access. As you know from my previous writings ... we have made good progress this year ... and more neighborhoods will be upgraded soon.

Boards and Commissions Dinner

We restarted our annual dinner that recognizes and thanks those in our town who volunteer their time/energy/brainpower as an elected official or as an appointed member of our Boards and Commissions. We have an excellent team working on for everyone’s benefit. Thank you to all of you who serve your fellow residents of Fairview!

Tenitrus Bethel

Tenitrus Bethel, our Town Secretary, was recently honored by the Texas Municipal Clerks Association (her professional organization) as Member of the Year. Way to go Tenitrus!!

News at Fairview Town Center

Wild Salsa which was heavily damaged during the 2021 ice storm has finally been able to reopen for dinner on Wednesday through Sunday evenings. They are considering opening for brunch on the weekends. I had dinner there recently and the food, drinks, and service were excellent!

For some excellent inexpensive local entertainment, check out the Fairview Youth Theater productions or the many Lovejoy/Allen/McKinney high school fine arts productions.

Breakfast with the Mayor on the second and fourth Mondays at 8am at the Fairview Farmers restaurant.

PRESCRIPTION DRUG TAKE BACK DAY

The Fairview Police Department is participating in the DEA's nationwide medication disposal program. Medication can be disposed in its original container or by removing the medication from its container and disposing of it directly into the disposal box. Liquid products, such as cough syrup, should remain sealed in the original container. Caps must be tightly sealed to prevent leakage. Intra-venous solutions, injectables and syringes will not be accepted due to potential hazard posed by blood-borne pathogens.

BURN BAN

Effective July 11, 2022, the Town of Fairview has implemented a burn ban. The Collin County Fire Marshal also issued the same burn ban earlier this month for all unincorporated areas of Collin County. This burn ban will remain in place until further notice for all properties within the Town of Fairview.

During normal times when a burn ban is not in effect, Fairview has restrictions on open burning but allows for residents on 10+ acres to conduct agricultural burns (with a Town issued permit) and allows for private home barbecue grills and barbecue pits to be used. During this burn ban, only private home-type barbecue grills will be permitted to be used. This ban includes burning of brush and natural vegetation on any land parcel and in any outdoor fire pit or container regardless of size. A propane grill/fire pit is still allowed, as it does not release embers that may spread and cause fires.

For more information, please review Chapter 5 (Fire Prevention and Protection) of the Town's Code of Ordinances on the Town of Fairview website at www.fairviewtexas.org, specifically: Fire Bans Section 5.01.001; Definitions: Open Burn, Section 5.05.001; and Exemptions, Section 5.05.003. If you have any questions, please contact Fire Marshal Green at (972) 886-4232.

HEARD HAPPENINGS

Explore the Heard at Night

Hikers that have found themselves on a trail after sunset know that experiencing a trail at night can be a completely different experience from hiking during the day. Landmarks change, as can a hiker's sense of direction. Even a familiar trail can feel completely different at night.

On November 12, at 6 p.m. guests are invited to explore the thrilling sights, smells, and sounds of night at Heard Natural Science Museum & Wildlife Sanctuary with Heard Trail Guides. Night hikers will be encouraged to sharpen their senses to be able to spot signs of animal life and learn more about the inhabitants of the Heard.

Preregistration is required for all night hikes. Tickets are $14 for the public and $12 for Heard Museum members (ages 3 through adult). Closed toed shoes, long pants, and bug spray are recommended. Participants should bring a flashlight with a red lens on it to protect your night vision while looking for nocturnal animals.

Children ages 18 and under must be accompanied by an adult. Hikes are at least an hour long and include varied terrain and may not be suitable for children under 5 years. Admission for toddlers and infants 2 years and under is free, but they must be in a carrier or backpack. Strollers are prohibited.

About Heard Natural Science Museum & Wildlife Sanctuary

ACTOR OF FAIRVIEW: Melody

Melody is 13 years old and in the 8th grade. She started in musical theater because several of her friends were doing it and she wanted to get involved and enjoy the amazing experience! She has now done 9 shows with NTPA-Fairview Youth Theatre. She is currently in, Seussical Jr., which is her 10th production! When not at the theater she likes to make resin art, bake and spend time with family and friends!

In the musical Seussical Jr., she will play the character Gertrude McFuzz. “What makes this character different from the rest is that she doesn’t particularly like the way is. She thinks she isn’t the most beautiful character and needs something big to stand out to the one she loves. Little does she know that the one she was trying to impress loves her for the way she is. The special thing about this show is that it is everything Seuss! It has all your favorite characters from Cat in the Hat to Horton the Elephant!”

Her favorite role to play so far was Ti Moune in Once On This Island Jr. “I loved playing this role because the music was fun and exciting and the choreography was challenging.. I loved being in a cast with all of my friends and it made the whole experience worth it!”

If you would love to see more about what NTPA-Fairview Youth theatre has to offer check out the website at www.ntpa.org or come see Melody and the rest of the cast of Seussical Jr. performing at NTPA-Fairview Youth Theatre October 20th-23rd.

This month at the Allen Public Library...

Finn Murphy and The Long Haul

Known by his trucker handle “U-Turn,” Finn Murphy has moved household goods across the country for 30 years. This affords him a unique window into the souls of his clients.

Some customers yell “Be careful!” repeatedly, as if their harsh admonitions are going to alter his course of action. Other clients leave the house and do not return until he has all their items on the truck. Some customers offer lunch while others do not provide a meal even though the nearest drive-through is fifteen miles away.

Murphy is also the author of THE LONG HAUL: A Trucker's Tale of Life on the Road. A review in The New York Times described his book as “almost shamefully enjoyable.” Murphy will speak at the Allen Public Library 7:30 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 13, which will also be web-cast live on allentx.swagit.com.

During the day, Finn is loading furniture onto a truck, but in the evening, he might be reading Jane Austen's Mansfield Park or Cormac McCarthy's Outer Dark in a dilapidated motel room. With his diverse interests and experiences, Finn offers a nuanced assessment of the American experience in his thought-provoking book.

“I've driven my rig all around Texas over and over and seen the signs for Allen many times,” Murphy points out. “I'm really looking forward to actually stopping in Allen for a few days rather than passing through on my way to somewhere else. See you in October.”

Sponsored by ALLEN Reads, this program is free.

Former FEC Chair Ann Ravel

Former chair of the Federal Elections Commission (FEC) Ann Ravel will speak at the Allen Public Library 3:00 p.m. Saturday, October 15. Admission to the program is free, and it will be web-casted live on allentx.swagit.com

Appointed to the FEC by President Obama in 2013, Ms. Ravel discovered that candidates from both primary political parties are benefitting from funds that originate in foreign countries. During her tenure on the FEC, Ms. Ravel became gravely concerned about the money flooding our elections from foreign countries. These funds, running into the hundreds of millions of dollars, aid in muffling the voice of the American people.

Ravel indicates that this isn't American dollars, because these funds emanate from foreign countries and are filtered through domestic corporations. In May 2015, Ravel told The New York Times that it is unlikely the FEC will be able to regulate upcoming elections. “The likelihood of the laws being enforced is slim,” she told The New York Times. “I never want to give up, but I'm not under any illusions. People think the FEC is dysfunctional. It's worse than dysfunctional.”

Ravel resigned from the FEC in 2017 and is currently serving as a Professor at the University of California, Berkeley School of Law.

FROM SHEEP TO TARTAN: HISTORY OF THE BRITISH WOOL INDUSTRY

British tartans, tweeds, and jumpers (sweaters) are well known around the world. In this highly illustrated lecture, Sharon Hudgins will explain the importance of the British wool industry from the Middle Ages to the Industrial Revolution to today, including how technology, trade, and fashion have affected the production of woolsens in Britain and beyond at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, October 18 at the Allen Public Library. Admission to the program is free, and it will be web-casted live on allentx.swagit.com

Sharon Hudgins is an award-winning author who has been a speaker on numerous tours for National Geographic, Smithsonian, and Viking Cruises. She is also a spinner and weaver who has been fascinated with wool since childhood, has taught courses in textile arts, and has photographed sheep, textile crafts, and textile equipment around the world.

New York Times Bestseller Chris Enss

Listen to New York Times bestselling author Chris Enss discuss Iron Women: The Ladies Who Helped Build the Railroad at 3:00 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 30 at the Allen Public Library. Admission to the program is free, and it will be web-casted live on allentx.swagit.com. Chris Enss has been writing about women of the Old West for more than twenty years. She has penned more than forty published books on the subject. Her work has been honored with five Will Rogers Medallion Awards, two Elmer Kelt-on Book Awards, an Oklahoma Center for the Book Award, and two Western Writers of America Spur Finalist awards.

Her books Thunder Over the Prairie and The Death Row All Stars have been optioned by major production companies and are currently in development to become motion pictures. Enss's most recent works are According to Kate: The Legendary Life of Big Nose Kate Elder, Love of Doc Holliday, No Place for a Woman: The Struggle for Suffrage in the Old West, Iron Women: The Ladies Who Helped Build the Railroad and The Widowed Ones: Beyond the Battle of the Little Bighorn.

Lovejoy ISD to Hold Voter-Approved Tax Rate Election (VATRE)

On November 8, 2022, Lovejoy ISD will hold a Voter-Approved Tax Rate Election (VATRE) to consider increasing the M&O portion of the 2022 ISD tax rate by 3.17 cents. Due to tax rate compression, Lovejoy ISD's 2022-2023 Tax Rate will decrease with or without the passing of the VATRE. The passing of the VATRE would generate approximately $640,000 in additional funding for Lovejoy ISD. Property tax rates for homeowners 65 years and older with the appropriate exemptions will not be impacted by the VATRE.

Priorities for the VATRE include employee compensation and restoring the fund balance.

Prior to calling for a VATRE, Lovejoy ISD engaged in an extensive budget analysis which included:

- Formation of a 40 Member Stakeholder-Based Financial Sustainability Committee
- Assessment of Current State
  - » Demographic Study
  - » Staffing Efficiency Study

- » Program Reviews
- » Capacity Assessment

- Implementation of Zero-Based Budgeting
- Development of a three (3) year Financial Forecast

The financial sustainability measures taken in the last year, including the work of the stakeholder-based Financial Sustainability Committee, are provided in more detail in the graphic. Current financial projections show a $44,527 deficit in FY24 with 100 days of fund balance, $1,045,556 deficit in FY25 with 86 days of fund balance, and $2,137,508 in FY26 with 65 days of fund balance. A baseline of 90 days and target of 120 days of fund balance are benchmarks for addressing district cash flow needs. # Fairview Construction Project Updates

TxDOT will begin the reconstruction of the Ridgeview Overpass from the 2 lane to a 4 lane overpass with pedestrian access this September. The frontage roads on US75 will be raised at Ridgeview like the Parker Rd frontage roads. This overpass will connect to Fairview Pkwy as it does now. The town is seeking funding from Collin County this Fall for the continuation of Fairview Pkwy North from the Ridgeview Overpass to Medical Center Drive. If we are successful, the funding would be a 70/30 county/city split. The county's bond sale in 2023 is not a very large one, however, so we will be competing with a lot of other projects. TxDOT will also begin the addition of 3 foot safety shoulders on FM1378 from Stacy Rd to SH5 in October. It will also include a new left turn lands at Hart Rd/Red Oak Trail and the Sloan Creek Intermediate School. We have also requested for TxDOT to improve the slippery when wet surface on SH5 on the sharp curve just North of Sloan Creek at the old RR bridge. They are looking at solutions. A new traffic signal will be constructed on FM1378 at Stoddard Rd in 2023.

A new regional sewer lift station is being constructed as a 3 way partnership between Fairview, Allen and the North Texas Municipal Water District. You may have seen the red crane over the trees just East of US75 and South of Spur 399. This will provide the ultimate capacity needed for the commercial district.

The town will be bidding out the extension of Country Club Rd West to US75/Spur 399 this Fall. We received a $3 million Federal EDA grant towards this project. Construction will start just after the first of the year with about a year to construct. The town has approved a project to design the reconstruction of Hart Rd to the 30% stage and to see what the cost is projected to be. If the funding can be determined, the town will hold stakeholder meetings and to get the designs to the 100% level for construction. At this time, the project is not funded.

Orr Road from Stacy Rd to the entrance to the NTMWD wastewater treatment plant has been reconstructed to concrete and is complete. There is now a concrete road from the sewer plant all the way to US75 along with bike lanes and trails in most areas.

As a nonprofit hunger relief organization, we distribute donated, purchased and prepared foods through a network of more than 400 Food Assistance Partners in 13 counties. Every day, we support the nutritional needs of children, families and seniors through education, advocacy and strategic partnerships.

BUSINESS SPOTLIGHT

The Winding Road to Success: Winners of Food Network's The Great Food Truck Rally Are Serving Up Creative Po'boys in Fairview

The journey to the perfect Po' Boy is not a straight line, just ask Cedric McCoy and Ryan Thompson, best friends and co-owner's of Fairview's Mr. Po' Boy. Yet, they'll also be quick to add that all of those twists and turns were worth because they got them to their final delicious destination.

And we happen to agree with them. To understand this winding road towards perfection, we sat down and chatted with the longtime friends and business partners to learn more about the whys, hows, and whats of the Mr. Po' Boy journey, laughing along the way with these two incredible men and ultimately becoming some of their biggest cheerleaders as well, because they are infectiously likable. But we'll get to that.

Their journey started years ago when they were classmates in culinary school, Cedric with dreams of becoming a test kitchen chef; Ryan with the singular focus of opening his own restaurant. There was an instant camaraderie even if they were certain their professional lives weren't going to intersect, no matter how many times Ryan begged Cedric to open a restaurant with him.

But, like life often goes, Cedric's refusals soon migrated towards approval as the two teamed up to open their first joint venture at the Dallas Farmer's market, which was successful and thriving until they discovered that their business partner was stealing from them—a setback and a discouragement to the young entrepreneurs.

However, the restaurant world wasn't done with them yet because right on the heels of this major disappointment came one of the biggest out-of-the-blue opportunities of a lifetime, a random call from the Food Network asking them to appear on a pilot cooking competition. While that show was not picked up for a full season, their episode made it to the air, and the audience was so enthralled with both their incredible personalities and their mouth-watering Po' Boys that they were offered a spot on The Great American Food Truck Race, an established show with a loyal following. On this show, they came in second place.

Now you would think that this victory would lead to immediate exposure and the opportunity to open up their very own Po' Boy restaurant right away. But you'd be wrong.

Because like every part of their journey, it wasn't a straight line. With multiple investors backing out and deals falling through, the friends decided to do it the harder, but ultimately their own way. Working non-stop and saving every single penny they could to fully fund their own brick and mortar restaurant in our very own town.

Now, of course, it wasn't a smooth journey even then with the COVID curveball and a few personal setbacks getting in the way, but once they were ready to open with the full greenlight, the pride of doing it themselves along with their faith and positive mindset has made the destination worth it.

And what a destination it is, with Mr. Po Boy bringing Cedric's unique take on this Southern classic, which even he has a hard time fully describing.

"We serve Po'boys but not your traditional style poboyos some say they are poboyos on steroids or you may say they are poboyos with a southern Texas twist, or you may call them fancy poboyos!"

We'll take his word for it, but also trust that a guy with his culinary training and lifelong cooking experience makes one mean sandwich you need to taste.

For us, the most important part of their journey is understanding why they chose Fairview for their first shop. An easy answer to these partners, according to Mr. McCoy:

"Well I live in Allen, and Fairview and Allen are such a great town and community to be apart of. We felt like we have something special, unique, and different to offer. Ryan and I were getting tired of seeing the same stuff open and it just seemed like there wasn't anything new to offer."

Since opening, they've been thrilled with the community, finding their groove and winning over hearts and stomachs one bite at a time. They're ready to keep going though, hoping to continue to gain a loyal Fairview following and eventually expand their unique concept into other markets.

For us, we can't help but root for these two infectious and effusive friends. With big hearts, amazing Po' Boys, and an unwavering faith after a tumultuous journey, we're cheering for Cedric and Ryan and are so glad they're here in our community putting down roots and growing a business, one bite at a time.
